

OUTING IN JERSEY FOR LEGION MEN

Prince-Forbes Post Will Give Second Picnic at Ran-cocas Park

MEETING AT WILLIAMSPORT

Prince-Forbes Post 7 will hold its second annual picnic Saturday at Ran-cocas Park, New Jersey. The buses bearing the Legion men, their wives and friends will leave Fifth street and Kingsessing avenue at 1:30 P. M. Boating, bathing, baseball and other sports have been arranged for the afternoon and planning for the evening.

The committee requests those who wish to meet the buses on the Camden side to be on the north side of Federal street, Camden Ferries, at 2:15. Major J. M. Painter, local chairman of the Williamsport Convention Committee, reports that every preparation is being made to make it the most successful convention the Legion has held. Already attending in the field are Major Gregg Post, No. 12, of that city, has an active committee working in behalf of the 1923 convention.

Continued reports of dissatisfaction relative to the service rendered by the Veterans Bureau have been coming into State headquarters. As one prominent physician who is a member of the Legion Committee on Medical Aid and Disabled Soldiers said, "Each day I am becoming more firmly convinced that we have the need and right for a permanent Board of Appeals or to a board for proper rating and classification of claimants which can be with us at least twice monthly."

If Pennsylvania can go to the national convention at New Orleans with a larger membership than it had at Kansas City, it is probable that its delegation will present the name of Colonel Thompson as a candidate for national commander next year. From present indications more than 500 Legionnaires from this State will make the New Orleans trip. The railroads have made an offer of the rate now under way for a one-way fare. National headquarters is still endeavoring to obtain a rate of one cent a mile.

Although the 700 mark has been safely passed, the Membership Committee of Henry H. Houston, 2d, Post, No. 8, promises to keep at high pitch the spirit of the drive now under way to increase the membership to 1000 by September. In addition to the three major prizes previously announced, it has been planned to offer as a further inducement to the members a drawing of a new automobile. At the next meeting of the post Tuesday at headquarters, 157 West Chelton avenue, membership minute men will speak. An interesting entertainment and refreshments will follow the business meeting.

NEW ANIMALS AT ZOO

Rare Specimens Just Arrived From Australia Coming Today

New specimens of animal and bird life, which are expected to arrive at the Zoological Gardens today, will make the collection of the Zoology department in its history. The specimens were purchased by G. Emerson Brown, the superintendent, from Ellis Josephs, who is known the world over as collector and hunter of rare animals. Josephs arrived in New York last week with a shipment of animals which he captured in the wilds of Australia.

The rarest of the new arrivals is the duck-billed platypus, and if it survives the journey it will be the only one in captivity. Josephs left Australia with five in his collection, but four died en route. In the reptile house at the Zoo can be seen two stuffed specimens of this animal. It represents the lowest order of mammal and is found only in Australia and Tasmania. It is aquatic in habit, like the muskrat, living in fresh water streams and constructing burrows in the banks. The male of the species is armed with a horny spur on each heel, connected with a poison gland on the thigh, and to be pricked by it means death for man or beast. They are shy and nocturnal animals and are rarely exhibited alive.

Four diamond pythons, ranging in length from six to eight feet, will be among the newcomers. There will also be four Australian monitors, a type of lizard, six feet in length. Several of the common kangaroos and a few of the species known as the rat kangaroo will be added to the present collection.

More color will be added in the bird house by the blue-shouldered pigeon and a guinea fowl, a much larger bird with beautiful and varied-colored feathers. There will also be two pairs of silver gulls and a Sydney wax bill, which resembles the finch.

CELEBRATION HALTED

Rain Interrupts Continued "Fourth" Festivities at Cobbs Creek

Continuance of the "Fourth of July" celebration of the Sherwood Improvement Association, which was interrupted by rain, will resume on Saturday evening, July 22, on Cobbs Creek Parkway, between Thomas and Whitty avenues. The celebration will start at 8 o'clock. Street dancing will be one of the features of the affair, for which the services of the Firemen's Band have been secured. Community singing will be led by Prof. George F. H. Jenkins. There will be an illumination of Cobbs Creek Park and Firemen's display.

Man Overcome by Heat

Henry Mc Dermott, forty-two years old, 2905 Cumberland street, fell unconscious in his home last night. He was taken to the Women's Homeopathic Hospital by police of the Twenty-sixth and York streets station, where physicians said he had been overcome by heat.

Auto Fractures Child's Hip

Verna Snyder, three years old, was run down in front of her home, 2062 East Elkhart street, last night by an automobile, and suffered a fractured hip. She was taken to the Northeast Hospital.
